

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

KENDREW WILSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

BROOKE STEINGRAEBER,

Defendant.

ORDER

Case No. 24-cv-787-jdp

KENDREW WILSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

BRADLEY BRAND,

Defendant.

ORDER

Case No. 24-cv-788-jdp

Plaintiff Kendrew Wilson, a prisoner in the custody of the Wisconsin Department of Corrections, has submitted a certified trust fund account statement for the six-month period preceding the filing of a complaint in support of plaintiff's motion for leave to proceed without prepaying the filing fee. Using information from the account statement, it appears that plaintiff presently has no means with which to pay the filing fees or make initial partial payments. Accordingly, the court will grant plaintiff's motion to proceed without prepaying the filing fees and will not assess initial partial payments in these cases.

Because plaintiff is an inmate, plaintiff is subject to the Prison Litigation Reform Act, which requires the court to screen the complaints to determine whether any portion is frivolous, malicious, fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted, or seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. Plaintiff is advised that the full $350 filing fee for each case remains plaintiff's obligation even if this court ultimately determines that the complaints cannot go forward. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(2).

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that:

1. The motion filed by plaintiff Kendrew Wilson for leave to proceed without prepayment of the filing fee is GRANTED.
2. No further action will be taken in these cases until the court has screened the complaints as required by the Prison Litigation Reform Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2). Once the screening process is complete, the court will issue a separate order.

Entered this 6th day of November, 2024.
